

SUNSO

CRUSOE

CHAPTER 1 - FAMILY

I was born in 1632 in the city of York. I am eighteen years old and my dream is to travel around the world. One day I tried to convince my parents to let me travel by sea but they said no. They thought it was too dangerous. I stayed with them for one more year but I really wanted to travel so I boarded a ship without my parents permission. I really hated it because I was seasick but later I got used to it and I started to enjoy being on the ship.

CHAPTER 2 - SLAVERY

AND ESCAPE

The next day there was a great storm. Everyone was really scared. We thought we're going to die because the ship was badly damaged. A small ship arrived to save us.

Luckily most of the sailors arrived safely at the shore. There were people waiting for us on the beach.

They gave the sailors money, food and new clothes.

I was too ashamed to go back to my parents so I travelled to Africa. I enjoyed it so I wanted to go back one more time but at the beginning of the journey pirates attacked us.

They took us prisoners.

CHAPTER 3 - WOMAN

I became a slave to the captain of the pirates. I felt very sad.

One day I met a young woman in the house. She was so beautiful. She was also a slave. I tried to speak to her but didn't speak my language. But I felt that she understood me. I fell in love with her. One day I was working with a boy and I saw a chance to run away. I met the girl one more time but I couldn't take her with us. I had to leave her.

I escaped with the boy.

CHAPTER 4-LION

We didn't stop for 6 days. On the 6th day I felt safer so we took the boat close to the island.

The next day we got some fresh water and the boy even found a chicken. We were really happy to eat some meat. One morning when we were going to get water we saw a lion. It started running towards us.

We were very scared. I had 3 guns. The first bullet hit his leg. The second bullet hit its head. The third bullet finished the animal. The meat wasn't good so we couldn't eat it but we wanted the skin. It was very big. We put it on the top of the boat and soon it was dry.

CHAPTER 5 - SHIP

For the next 10 days, we sailed close to the land.

The land was inhabited. A group of people looked very friendly. They gave us dry meat. We thanked them but we didn't have anything for them. At that moment we saw two animals which attacked a young girl. I killed one of them. The other one ran away. The people brought us more food and water as a gift for saving the girl. One day later we saw a ship at the horizon. They let us go with them. There was a Scottish sailor on the ship. I told him our story. They agreed to take us on the ship. We're really happy.

CHAPTER 6 - WIFE

The ship was on the way to Brazil. When we arrived I said goodbye to the sailors and the boy. I started a new life in Brazil. My life was good. Soon I had enough money to hire a lady to clean my house. One of my friends had a daughter who was 18 years old and also a very good cook. I hired her. She was very beautiful and kind. She came to my house every day to clean up.

I really missed her when she wasn't in my house. I thought, "Maybe I'm in love with her." 2 months later we got married and started to plan a family. This period of my life was great.

We needed a bigger house. I knew I could make a lot of money in Africa so I told my friends about my idea and they started to be interested in it.

CHAPTER 7 - HURRICANE

We started our journey to Africa. Everything was fine until a hurricane came. After the hurricane passed we wanted to repair the ship at Barbados. When we started this short trip a second hurricane came. The next morning the ship stopped in shallow water. We got into a small boat but suddenly a huge wave overturned our boat. I somehow got to the beach but I was very weak, I collapsed. When I got up I looked for the others but I couldn't find them anywhere. All my friends were dead. I noticed I didn't have anything to eat or drink and nothing with which to defend myself.

CHAPTER 8 - ISLAND

I was looking for a place to sleep. I found a tall tree.

The next morning the sea was calm. I decided to go back to the ship because I needed guns and food.

Luckily there was a lot of things on the ship which I didn't get wet. I even found a friend for myself.

A day! I wasn't alone anymore. Later I went back to the beach with the things I've found.

Then, I saw a hill. I climbed it. From the top of it, I saw sea around the whole place. I was on an island. I could see 2 small islands near.

I also saw a big land to the south. It was about 100 kilometres far. I couldn't see any sign of people on my island, only wild animals.

CHAPTER 9 - TENT

I needed a place to live so I built a tent.

I decided to go back to the ship and take some useful things. I went back to the ship 12 times and took some guns, bullets, gunpowder, bread and sugar. One day there was a big storm and the ship disappeared. I needed a safe place so I built my tent next to a hill and close to fresh water.

CHAPTER 10 - CALENDAR

I made a terrace on the inner side of the fence.

I also went hunting every day. I had enough meat.

I regretted traveling by sea. I often felt alone but I was grateful because I was alive. I decided to make a big cross so I can keep information about time. I made a cut every day in the cross. It was my calendar. I had a lot of negative thoughts so I made a list about good and bad things that happened to me. I realized every bad thing comes with something good. I tried to find the good things around me. My dog also helped me to concentrate on positive things.

CHAPTER 11

I decided to write a book about my daily activities.
I made a schedule too, to organize my time better.

When I was finally done with making the case I started to arrange the furniture in my new home.

At the end of December I killed a goat. I also hurt another one so I took it home with me and I took care of it. I considered keeping animals. I wanted to try domesticate some goats. I had a plan but me and my dog weren't successful. We needed another plan. I told my dog "let's go home, I need some rest."

CHAPTER 12 - CORN

I found a small bag while clearing my home. It used to be corn in it, but now it was empty. It only had some dust in it. I emptied it outside my fence. A few weeks later I saw some green leaves growing there. It was young corn. I was really happy. Later, there was an earthquake. Fortunately I was lucky enough and my cave was okay. But I still wanted to build something stronger. I built a house. I was happy with my new home.

CHAPTER 13-DREAM

I was sick for a week and I had some really crazy dreams.

In one of my dreams a man tried to sell gunpowder to me, but I told him I didn't need it. He was really angry.

He said horrible things about me. He even took his gun and shot at me. Then I woke up. When I got better,

I explored the whole island. I found a lot of fruits, like grapes, and melons. I began thinking about moving to the fruit valley. Then I remembered that the beach was far away from that valley and I wouldn't see if any ship passed by.

CHAPTER 14 - HOUSE

Instead of moving to the fruit valley, I decided to build another house there. I made a small house and I surrounded it with a double fence.

This activity took me the whole of August and the beginning of September, but I enjoyed it a lot. I thought about my family very often. I trusted God. I believed he knew what he was doing. After the rainy season I went back to my valley house. I liked it so much, that I made a fence around my first house as well.

With the end of the rainy season I put half of my seeds in to the ground, but they didn't come up because the ground was too wet. Now I knew when to put the seeds in to the ground and I had a little farm on the island.

CHAPTER 15 - BASKET

Soon I realized I needed baskets to carry food.

I made baskets from branches from the same tree I used for both my fences. Then, I went on a trip around the island and I discovered pleasant grass fields. Everything was full of flowers, rabbits and there were a lot of parrots too. I even captured a parrot and took it with me. On the way back, my dog captured a young bird which I saved and took with me. When I got back I made a cage for the parrot and brought home the bird. I was really grateful. I kept my daily schedule. I also taught the parrot to say his name. His name was Poll.

CHAPTER 16 - BREAD

I began preparing the tools I would need in a year's time. I needed pots to keep the corn. I also needed a tool to make flour from seeds. During my third year on the island, I made my first bread. One day, when I was making a canoe I realized I didn't know how to take the canoe to the beach. I tried everything to move it but it didn't work. I gave up on the canoe. I had to plan my work better next time.

CHAPTER 17 - CANOE

During my fourth year on the island I realised I needed new clothes so I made some of the skin of the animals

I hunted. I successfully made an umbrella too.

I lived like that for the next five years. I decided to make a new canoe. It was smaller and easier to move.

I wanted to test if I can go around the island in it.

When I got home of the trip I was really tired.

Later I found out how to make pots with a wheel which made my work a lot lighter. I also figured out how to make a tobacco pipe which I missed a lot ever since I came to this island.

CHAPTER 18 - FOOT

One day, I noticed I was running out of gunpowder.

I had to find some other way to supply myself with food.

I decided to make some traps. I caught three young goats.

I made a fence for them. In three years time I had twenty goats. This way I had a lot of milk and meat. I managed to make cheese and butter. One day I was walking on the beach when I saw a human footprint. I thought someone wants to attack me but I convinced myself that maybe

I saw the mark of my own foot. This made me feel better.

Then I went to see the footprint again.

CHAPTER 19 - CANNIBALS

The footprint was much bigger than mine. I got scared again.

That night I let all my animals out so they can destroy my fields and summer house. No mark of human habitation was left on the island. It was the sixteenth year of my life on the island, when my dog passed away. I was really sad. It was two years after the footprint. I was walking on the beach, when I saw something terrifying. The whole beach was covered in human remains. "They were here again." I thought. Soon I started thinking how I could kill some of the cannibals. Then I changed my mind. It was unreasonable to fight them, because they didn't do any harm to me.
