MARK TWAIN

Samuel Clemens was born in 1835. Later he was known by the name Mark Twain, and was an American writer in the 19th and 20th century. His most famous novels are The Adventures of Tom Sawyer and Adventures of Huckleberry Finn.

He had a wife, and four children, and died in 1910.

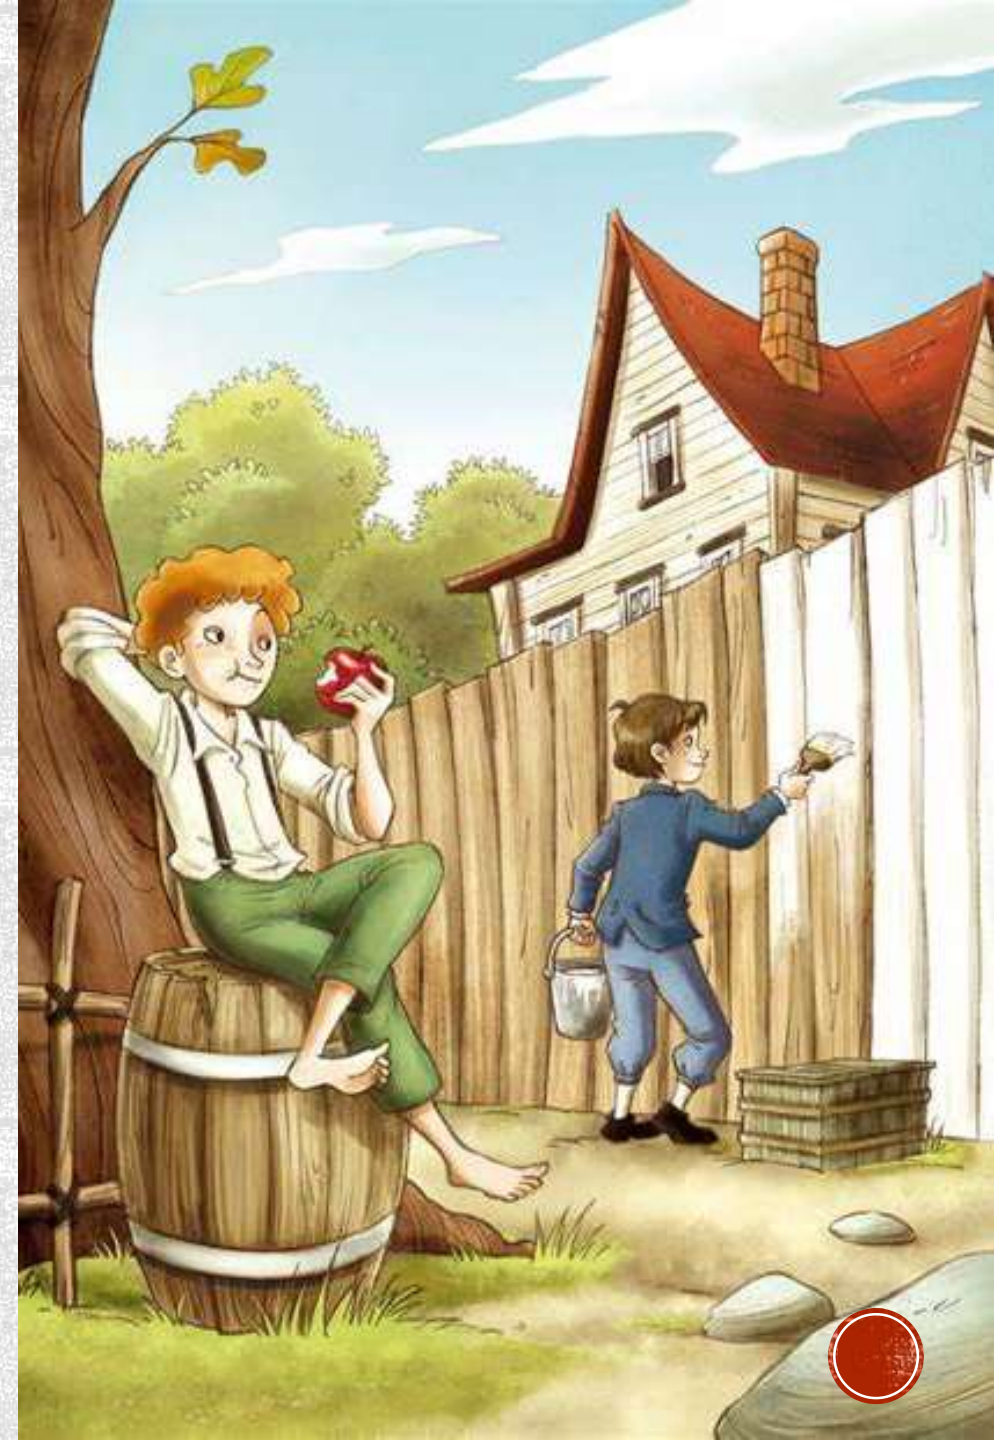

Twain photographed in 1908 by a special type of shooting in colour, called the Autochrome Lumiere process.

CHAPTER 1: THE FENCE

Tom didn't go to school, so his aunt, who he lives with, punished him, by making him paint the fence. One of his friends passed by, and Tom tricked him into painting the fence, and giving him food, later he did this to other boys to. After that, when he was going home from his friend's house, he saw a pretty blonde-haired girl whose eyes were blue, although, he couldn't talk to her.

CHAPTER 2: IN THE GRAVEYARD

A morning, before school Tom and Huck Finn agreed on having an adventure at midnight that day in the graveyard. The meeting was going to be at eleven o'clock.

Because of this conversation, Tom was late for school and had to sit with the girls, but there was Becky, the girl with blonde hair and blue eyes, so he engaged in a talk with her. For this, the teacher said to him, to sit back to his original place. In the afternoon, Tom said to Becky, that he loved her now, not Amy, but after hearing this she got angry, and walked away.

That night Tom and Huck went to the graveyard, and saw, that Injun Joe killed the doctor with a knife, while Muff Potter was still there. The boys went home, and didn't talk about this, because of their fear of Injun Joe.

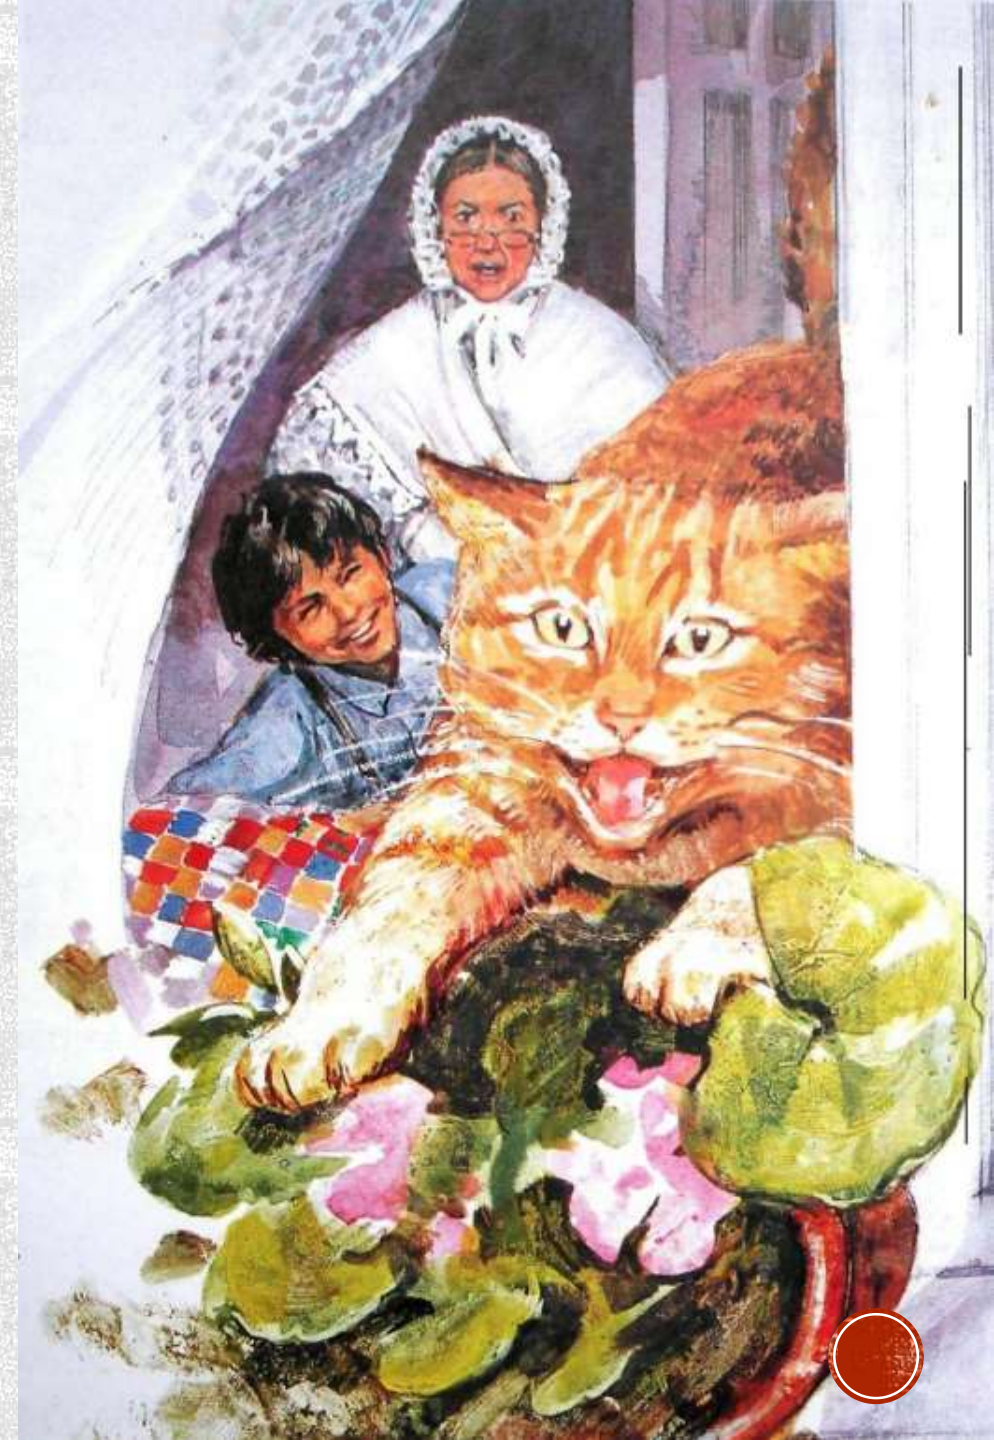

Later some men went to Muff Potter and said, that he killed the doctor.

CHAPTER 3.: A BAD DAY

Tom didn't want to go to school because Becky was also sick for days. Aunt Polly said, that then he should take some medicine, to get better. He didn't want to take those, so he gave them to Peter, the cat. He didn't like it, so he ran out of the window. After this, his aunt said to them, that he should go to school immediately. He arrived early, and waited for Becky, but she ignored him. He met with Joe Harper, and they agreed to run away, and Huck joined them, but before that, they went separately home to get some food for that.

CHAPTER 4.: ACROSS THE RIVER

Tom, Joe and Huck went across the river by a boat they have found. They played there, and after that, they went to sleep. In the next day's afternoon, they heard a great boat on the river, where men were talking about the boys. They thought that they were dead. The boys were sad hearing this and went to sleep. That night Tom secretly went home to hear that his aunt also misses him. Tom went back to his friends, and they decided to go to the town's church next Sunday, and they did. Everyone was happy and surprised.

CHAPTER 5.: AT SCHOOL

On Monday, Tom went to school and talked a lot about his adventure. He also talked to Amy and Becky didn't like that. Becky said to her friends that she's going to have an adventure day, but she didn't invite Tom. She and Alfred was looking at a picture book which made Tom angry. In the afternoon Tom said sorry to Becky, but she ignored him again. Becky went to the classroom, and looked at the teacher's new book, and when Tom came into the room, she accidentally tore it. When the teacher entered the classroom, he saw that the book was torn and started to ask everyone about this. When he reached to Becky Tom took the blame and had to stay in after school. After school Becky thanked him, and they walked home together.

CHAPTER 6.: THE TRIAL

Summer holiday started, but Tom was upset, because Becky went away with her family. Also, Muff Potter's trial started. Tom and Huck brought him some food. They wanted to help him, so on the third day of the trial, Tom confessed about the real murderer, Injun Joe. The people were surprised and wanted to hear more about that. The boys were afraid of Injun Joe.

CHAPTER 7: INJUN JOE'S TREASURE

One Saturday afternoon Huck and Tom went treasure hunting to an abandoned house. They looked in the kitchen and the bedroom, but they didn't find anything. They heard Injun Joe and a friend of his walk into the house, and they wanted to hide their money in the house. Joe started to dig, but he found another box full of money. They left with that money and talked about hiding it somewhere else. Tom and Huck watched Injun Joe's house every night, but they didn't see him or his treasure.

An illustration of a young boy and a young girl walking through a cave. The boy is on the right, wearing a blue jacket, a yellow shirt, and a large, round, light-colored hat. He is holding the hand of the girl on the left. The girl is wearing a green dress with a white collar and a white bonnet with a pink flower. They are both looking towards the right. The background is a dark, rocky cave with some light-colored rock formations.

CHAPTER 8.: BECKY'S ADVENTURE DAY

In August Becky's family came back from vacation. Tom was happy about this. Becky's adventure day was Saturday, and after that she would sleep at Susy's house. She and her friends went to the river and had a great boat ride. After that they went to see the cave nearby. In the evening, they went to the boat and back home. Sunday morning Tom's aunt and Becky's mum asked Susy's mother that where are the children. She didn't know, and then 200 men went looking for the kids, but they didn't find them.

CHAPTER 9.: HUCK'S ADVENTURE

Huck didn't go to Becky's adventure, instead he watched Injun Joe's house and saw that he and his friend came out with a box in his friend's hand, that Huck thought would be the treasure box. The men went to Mrs. Douglas's house's yard, and wanted to rob the house, but they thought that there could be guests, so they waited. Huck went to Mr. Jones, and asked for help, so Mr. Jones and his sons went to Mrs. Douglas's house and scared the men away. Huck didn't want his name to be said to Mrs. Douglas. After that Mrs. Douglas and Mr. Jones went to church, where people were talking about Becky and Tom. Mr. Jones and his sons went to the cave to search for them, but they were unsuccessful.

CHAPTER 10.: IN THE CAVE

On Becky's adventure day Tom and Becky were walking and playing in the cave. They decided to go back, but they were lost. Becky was hungry, so she sat down to eat. Tom went to find the exit, but he had only found Injun Joe, who didn't notice him. Three days later Tom had found the exit, and they have gone outside. A man came to them and took them home.

CHAPTER 11.: IN THE CAVE AGAIN

Tom went to Becky's house to talk to her father. Mr. Thatcher said that he was grateful of the help that her daughter received. He also said that now the cave's closed because it's got a new big door. Tom said that Injun Joe's living in that cave. He's right, and they've found Joe's corpse. Later Huck and Tom were talking, and they figured that the money is in the cave. They went there and found the treasure under the cross on the ground. The took the money home in some smaller bags, because the box what they found the money in was heavy.

CHAPTER 12.: AT MRS. DOUGLAS'S HOUSE

The boys decided to take the money to the abandoned house next to Mrs. Douglas's house. In that house's yard were Mr. Jones and said to the boys that there are a lot of people waiting for them at Mrs. Douglas's. They went into a room, changed into new clothes, then went to the living room. Then Mrs. Douglas thanked Mr. Jones and his sons and Huck, she wanted to give Huck a home and some money, but Tom revealed that Huck had a load of money ($12.000), and everyone was surprised by that and wanted to hear about the adventure.
