

THE LOCKED DOOR

CHAPTER ONE

where am I?

So there is someone who don't know where he is. It's a room and its beautiful and he is hearing very relaxing music. His head is hurting and he can't open the doors or the windows. There is not any drink or food but there's a pen and a paper on the desk. He doesn't know his name, or who he is.

He went sleeping.

It's morning, and I'm so thirsty and hungry. I'm wearing grey clothes and the door suddenly starting to open. It was a man he is wearing all black clothes. We speaked a little, then he gave me something to drink. Later I was tired again and went to sleep. When I woked up, the man started to ask questions, he gave me something to drink again then the room is dark.

CHAPTER TWO

(2 question)

I'm awake again, the man came to the room again he wanted to ask questions again but I couldn't answer them so he hit me in the face. I suddenly remembers something; how I was kidnapped. I decided that I'm going to remember more tomorrow.

CHAPTER

THREE

(no more time)

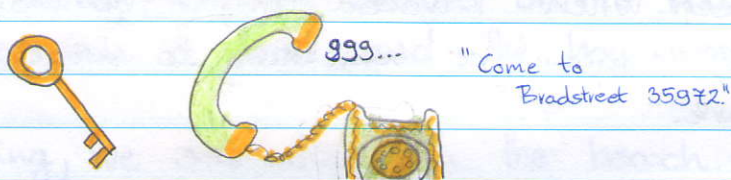

The next day the man came in again. I've got a vision again, I'm watching a house and two man came and then darkness. It's dark outside, I can hear noises. (it was a women)

CHAPTER

FOUR

(out of the locked room)

I have got the key to the room to open it, it's quiet outside and I'm opening the door. There is a corridor, it's empty. I went out and locked the door. I can't go down because there are people downstairs. I found out they are art thieves. I found a phone and called the police. But then I heard noises and put the phone down.

CHAPTER FIVE

(who am I?)

Five minutes later I can hear noises, he opened the door and started to look for me. He is opening doors and try to kill me. The the POLICE ARRIVED!!! The police tried to come in and then, I showed up and just like that the women and the men was in the police cars. And then I found out. I was a thief but the police thanked me for the help!
