

The Locked Room

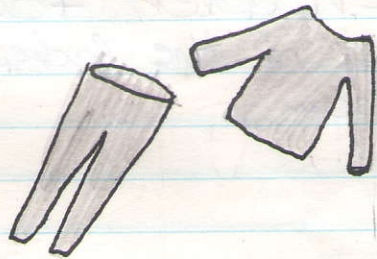

Chapter One: Where am I?

The story: There is a boy who is in a locked room with the door and window locked. In the room there is only a table, a chair, a bed, a pen and some papers. There's another man there who always gives him something to drink that always makes him sleepy.

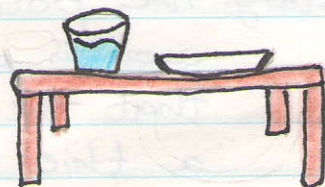

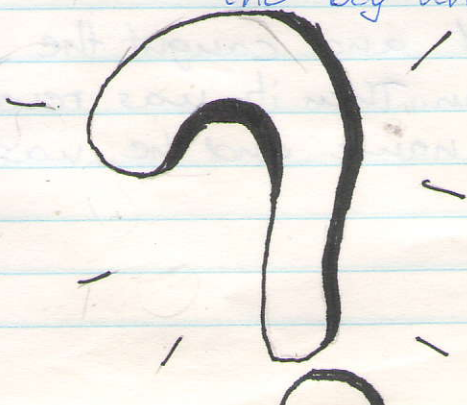

My opinion: I find the story a little strange at first, but I'm sure I'll find the answers to everything.

Chapter two: Questions

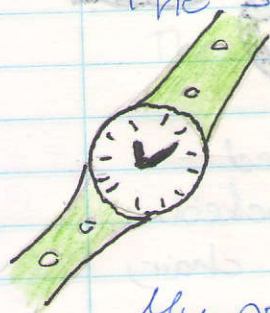

The story: The boy woke up again. Now there was a food and drink on the table. The man went into the room and asked him ~~a~~ some question and then hit him. Then he remembered some things.

My opinion: It's very strange to me why the man hits the boy and why he does all this

Chapter three: No more time

The story: The man asks the boy again. The boy remembers again. Then outside the room the man talks to a woman about the boy.

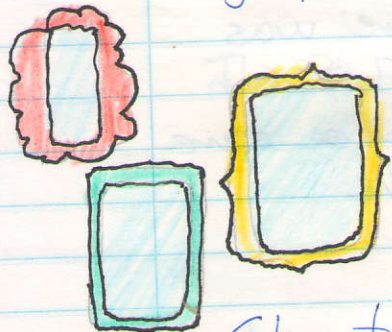

My opinion: The conversation between the man and the woman was exciting to me because I think I will soon find out what is happening.

Chapter four: The little boy cleverly got out of the locked room of the room, looked around the house, found some stolen paintings, and called the police.

My opinion: The boy got out of the room very cleverly, I probably wouldn't have been able to get out. ~~And I was relieved that the police caught the woman and the man.~~

Chapter five: Who am I?

The story: The police arrived and caught the woman and the man. Then it was revealed that the boy's real name and he was a thief.

My opinion, I honestly didn't expect this sequel, but it's good. I'm glad they caught the woman and the man. It was also a bit strange to me that the boy was actually a thief.
